

1. Fill in the blank: Examples of security _____ include security and risk management and security architecture and engineering.

1 point

- ☒ domains
☐ assets
☐ data
☐ networks

2. A security professional is asked to destroy and dispose of old hard drives that include confidential customer information. Which security domain is this task related to?

1 point

- ☒ Asset security
☐ Security and risk management
☐ Communication and network security
☐ Software development security

3. Your supervisor asks you to audit user permissions for payroll data to ensure no unauthorized employees have access to it. Which security domain is this audit related to?

1 point

- ☐ Security operations

3. Your supervisor asks you to audit user permissions for payroll data to ensure no unauthorized employees have access to it. Which security domain is this audit related to?

1 point

- ☐ Security operations
☐ Asset security
☒ Security assessment and testing
☐ Software development security

4. You are asked to investigate an alert related to an unknown device that is connected to the company's internal network. After you complete your investigation, you follow company policies and procedures to implement preventative measures that will stop the potential threat posed by the device. Which security domain is this scenario related to?

1 point

- ☐ Software development security
☒ Security operations
☐ Security architecture and engineering
☐ Asset security