

Reflect and connect with peers

Congratulations on completing the Connect and Protect: Networks and Network Security course!

You learned about network architecture, security, and investigation techniques that will help you design and maintain secure networks.

Expand your understanding by joining the conversation. Learning is more rewarding when you're part of a supportive community. As a reminder, you can connect with fellow learners by accessing the Google Cybersecurity Community  to discuss course content and expand your network.