

Practice: Respond to a SIEM alert

Close

Practice: Respond to a SIEM alert

Multiple choice exercise

Identify the right response

Review each phase of the incident and identify the correct playbook response by selecting a response from the list.

Incident

You're monitoring a SIEM dashboard and receive an alert about a suspicious file download. What's the first thing you should do?

Playbook response

Assess the alert by gathering more information ☒

Use a tool to contain the incident ☐

Report the alert to cyber crime agencies ☐

1 of 3

NEXT >

Practice: Respond to a SIEM alert

Close

Practice: Respond to a SIEM alert

Multiple choice exercise

Identify the right response

Review each phase of the incident and identify the correct playbook response by selecting a response from the list.

Incident

You determine that the suspicious file download alert is valid, so you follow the steps in your organization's playbook to contain and eliminate traces of the incident. What should you do next?

Playbook response

Restore affected systems ☒

Isolate the infected network system ☐

Analyze log data ☐

< BACK

2 of 3

NEXT >

Practice: Respond to a SIEM alert

Close

Practice: Respond to a SIEM alert

Multiple choice exercise

Identify the right response

Review each phase of the incident and identify the correct playbook response by selecting a response from the list.

Incident

After you've taken all the necessary steps outlined in your organization's playbook to resolve the incident, what should you do?

Playbook response

Restore affected data using a clean backup ☐

Investigate the suspicious file download ☐

Communicate the incident to stakeholders ☒

< BACK

3 of 3

Continue