

Your grade: 100%Your latest: 100% • Your highest: 100% • To pass you need at least 75%. We keep your highest score.Next item →

1. What factors do authentication systems use to verify a user's identity? Select three answers.

1 / 1 point

☒ Ownership☒ Correct

Knowledge, ownership, and characteristic are the three factors used by authentication systems to verify a user's identity.

☒ Characteristic☒ Correct

Knowledge, ownership, and characteristic are the three factors used by authentication systems to verify a user's identity.

☐ Authorization☒ Knowledge☒ Correct

Knowledge, ownership, and characteristic are the three factors used by authentication systems to verify a user's identity.

2. How do businesses benefit from implementing single sign-on (SSO) technology? Select two answers.

1 / 1 point

☒ By simplifying their user management☒ Correct

Providing a better user experience and simplifying their user management are ways that businesses benefit from implementing SSO.

☐ By streamlining HTTP traffic between servers☒ By providing a better user experience☒ Correct

Providing a better user experience and simplifying their user management are ways that businesses benefit from implementing SSO.

☐ By requiring multiple forms of identification

3. A retail company has one employee that's in charge of purchasing goods, another employee that's in charge of approving new purchases, and a third employee that's in charge of paying invoices. What security principle is the retail company implementing?

1 / 1 point

☒ Separation of duties☐ Authentication, authorization, and accounting (AAA)☐ Non-repudiation☐ Least privilege☒ Correct

The retail company is implementing the separation of duties principle. Separation of duties is the security principle that users should not be given levels of authorization that would allow them to misuse a system.

4. What are the categories of access controls? Select three answers.

1 / 1 point

☐ Administration☒ Authentication☒ Correct

The three categories of access controls are authentication, authorization, and accounting.

☒ Authorization☒ Correct

The three categories of access controls are authentication, authorization, and accounting.

☒ Accounting☒ Correct

The three categories of access controls are authentication, authorization, and accounting.

 Authorization Correct

The three categories of access controls are authentication, authorization, and accounting.

 Accounting Correct

The three categories of access controls are authentication, authorization, and accounting.

5. What credential does OAuth use to authenticate users?

1 / 1 point

- ☐ A one-time passcode (OTP)
- ☒ An application programming interface (API) token
- ☐ A session cookie
- ☐ A digital certificate

 Correct

OAuth uses an API token to authenticate users. An API token is a digital credential that is shared between a platform and a service provider to verify a user's identity.